NOAH

by Fred Douglas

main idea.

Are we living in the days of Noah?

OUTLINE

1. Keep an eye on the situation and God's promises.
2. Cultivate the presence of God.
3. Discover and hold onto God's plan.

Keep an eye on the situation and God's promises.

The Lord observed the extent of human wickedness on the earth, and He saw that everything that they thought or imagined was consistently and totally evil.

Genesis 6:5 NLT

The Lord sat as King at the flood; yes,
the Lord sits as King forever. The Lord will give strength to His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace.

Psalm 29:10 NASB

Cultivate the presence of God.

But Noah found favor in the eyes of the Lord.

Genesis 6:8 ESV

This is the account of Noah and his family.
Noah was a righteous man, the only blameless person living on the earth at the time, and he walked in close fellowship with God.

Genesis 6:9 NLT

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore, we will not fear, though the earth should change, and though
the mountains slip into the heart of the sea;
though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains quake at its swelling pride.

Discover and hold onto God's plan.

Make for yourself an ark of gopher wood;
you shall make the ark with rooms, and
shall cover it inside and outside with pitch.

Genesis 6:14 NASB

Noah warned the world of God's righteous judgment. So, God protected Noah when He destroyed the world of ungodly people with a vast flood.

2 Peter 2:5b NLT

A large, dark pendulum clock is the central focus. A spotlight from above illuminates the clock's face, which has Roman numerals and two hands. The rest of the clock and the background are in deep shadow.

conclusion.

Are we living in the days of Noah?

The end of all things is near;
therefore, be of sound judgment
and of sober spirit for the purpose of prayer.

1 Peter 4:7 NASB

I am the door; if anyone enters through Me, he will be saved.

John 10:9 NASB

conclusion.

We are living in the days of Noah.
